

Our client, The Crafts Council of Ireland, is the main champion of the craft industry in Ireland, representing all disciplines of craft practitioners. Its objectives are to foster the growth and commercial strength of the craft sector, communicate its unique identity and stimulate quality, design and competitiveness. It is funded by the Department of Enterprise

Trade & Employment through Enterprise Ireland. We have been retained to assist in the appointment of a Project Manager for a period of two years to launch a programme of activities to celebrate 2011 Year of Craft.

PROJECT MANAGER, 2011 YEAR OF CRAFT. Ref. 6222

You will be responsible for the development and project management of a calendar of activities to celebrate 2011 Year of Craft in Ireland. You will agree and implement an overall strategy, develop a programme of activities and build relationships internally and externally which engage relevant agencies. You will develop a marketing and communications plan to raise Ireland's profile as a creative destination through ongoing advertising, promotion and public relations campaigns. You will report to the Chief Executive.

The successful candidate will be qualified to degree level with a minimum of five years post-qualification experience in large scale event management / project management. You will have a proven track record in project delivery and excellent organisational and presentation skills. An ability to work both on one's own initiative and in teams is essential as is a high level of energy and motivation. An understanding and knowledge of the craft sector is desirable.

Candidates should send full personal, career and salary details, quoting reference number 6222, to Michelle Noone, KPMG Executive Search & Selection, 1 Stokes Place, St Stephen's Green, Dublin 2. Tel. 410 2801. Email: michelle.noone@kpmg.ie

The Crafts Council of Ireland is an equal opportunities employer.

